

Bernie Sanders

Politics is very important.
He was taught this at a young age.
He was taught that in 1932
A guy named Adolf Hitler won an election,
And 11 million deaths soon followed.

Determined to speak his mind,
And unafraid to piss people off,
He fought for civil rights.
He held Chicago's first civil rights sit in,
To do away with campus housing segregation.

A hippie with a cause.
He despised the war in Vietnam,
and wasn't afraid to speak against it.
Though he never blamed those who fought it,
but instead supported veterans benefits.

A democratic socialist.
Steadfast in a fight for equality,
And a progressive voice,
He speaks against injustice
And the tyranny of the 1%

Now as a Democratic Candidate
He's said to be "too progressive."
Well in a world that's moving backwards
Sometimes it can be good
To have someone pushing the other way.

Determined to speak his mind,
A hippie with a cause,
And a democratic socialist,
has become a presidential candidate
In the democratic primaries
